Matthew 5: 13-16

A Church shares—but do we really? What might happen if we did?

A great dining experience really comes down to these two things: food and atmosphere.

It's all about what you see and what you taste...for math people here's the equation:
FOOD + Atmosphere = Experience

So what should our experience be like when we come to church?

NEXT STEPS AT EPWORTH UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

Loving God & Others

Church Pentecost Party

May 20 | 12:00PM

When's the last time you heard of a church throwing a party? Well, many people consider the day of Pentecost to be the birthday of the entire Church. Meanwhile, we would also like to acknowledge our own little portion of the global church, Epworth, is turning 60 years old! So, consider yourself invited! Games and fun to be had by all. We will provide the meat and the drinks. Please bring a side or salad to share. Interested in helping plan the event? Contact Pat Engel at engelp@epworthindy.org.

Loving Others Through Missions

Join us Sunday May 20th following worship for a Mission Service Panel. We will have representatives from East 10th Street, Pack Away Hunger, Forest Manor Food Pantry, The Jubilee Project, and Mission Guatemala. You will learn how your Mission Dollars are being used and you will learn about new opportunities to be engaged in the great work these people are doing. You will also hear updates on what's new and what's coming at Epworth.

Growing Your Faith

An Introduction to Human Trafficking

May 29 | 7:00—8:30PM

The IN Attorney General's Office has said human trafficking — which involves both labor and sex trafficking — is one of the largest and fastest - growing problems in the world, just behind the drug trade. Shalom Zone hopes to raise awareness about human trafficking and provide education on how to address the problem in our community.
